IN THE MIDDLE OF INNOVATION

The neighborhood surrounding Midway Innovation Center is a dynamic business area attracting new development from both Minneapolis and St. Paul, where the cities converge. Midway Innovation Center is at the axis of these exciting changes.

Midway Innovation Center's location provides tenants with exceptional visibility and an abundance of nearby amenities that two large urban centers have to offer, such as parks and recreation, shopping, connectivity to metro transit and hundreds of restaurants and dining options, including a thriving brewery scene and emerging cultural centers.

The location of the Midway Innovation Center campus is also situated at the midpoint of the U of M's Minneapolis and St. Paul campuses and is on the University's campus transitway that shuttles the brightest, budding minds of Minnesota from one campus to the next. Also, 11 of the most prestigious universities and technical colleges in Minnesota are located less than 8 miles away from the property.
